

ALEXANDRIA

SATURDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 1

A Universal Peace Convention has been in sesion in Washington. Elizabeth Cady Stanton entertained the assemblage yesterday with a speech in laver of peace; and upon her motion a resolution was adopted declaring that the principle of inequality has been tried in government over and over again, and uniformly failed; let us demand in the reconstruction of our government "equal rights to all, irrespective of sex and color." Mrs. Stanton said she protested against the extension of suffrage to negroes alone—that is, manhood suffrage, and ignorant manhood, at that but that the right of suffrage should be given to all men and women together ! so syad and

The New York correspondent of the Phila delphia Ledger writes, on the 30th, as follows "There is quite a stir in political circles over a letter which Commodore Vanderbilt has just addressed to Mr. A. T. Stewart, giving notice that he (Vanderbilt) has withdrawn from the Cooper Institute movement, which had for its object the nomination of General Grant to the Presidency. The reason assigned for this un expected defection is the course the General saw fit to adopt in regard to the reinstatement of Mr. Stanton in the War Department. The letter is very sharp, and there is a loud call for Mr. Stewart to make it public."

The "scenes" in the Virginia Convention are creating disgust in the minds of intelligent men of all parties. They are increasing the desire beginning to prevail generally that the Conservative members should abstain, as far as possible, from controversies with the domi nant party in the Convention, and even from all debate, which is not absolutely necessary. Where there is a chance to do good, certainly that may be used; but, we take it, these chances are very rare, indeed. There are many intelligent citizens who doubt the propriety or expediency of any speeches by the Conservative Argument was commenced yesterday in the Supreme Court in the McArdle case, which involves the constitutionality of the Reconstruction laws. Judge Hughes, one of the counsel on the part of the War Department, entered a motion for the dismissal of the case, on the ground of the Court not having jurisdiction. He was followed by ex: Attorney Gen. Black, who opposed the motion. During the argument Chief Justice Chase announced that the case would go over to next Friday.

The Constitution of the U.S. provides that each and every State shall have two Senators. In ten States - well, that's nothing; we go on. Maryland, which never "rebelled"-which never "seceded" - which furnished troops and arms to the government during the late warwhich was "Union"-which is as much, and always has been, as much a portion of the "United States" as Massachusetts-is allowed but one Senator! The other stands "knocking at the door"-nothing more!!

It is now reported from Washington that the impeachment of the President has been by no means dropped. Legislation to that end is now pending in Congress. The permission granted by the House to the Reconstruction Committee to inquire whether any obstruction is offered to the execution of the reconstruction laws, is intended to catch the President in the commission of any overt act of that nature. when he will instantly be impeached and removed. wheat has harm haves a fed inche

The Washington Star of yesterday says that the story in relation to remarks alleged to have been made by Judge Fields in regard to the Reconstruction measures of Congress, is likely to prove a sell! It claims that it was not the Judge, but a gentleman who bears considerable personal resemblance to him, that used the language attributed to him. How this may be-we shall soon know !

The public debt statement for January, it is said, will not present a very encouraging exhibit, as the total will be increased to about twelve or fifteen millions. NEWS OF THE DAY.

To show the very age and body of the Times.

In Frankfort, Ky., yesterday, a negro com mitted a horrid outrage on an Irish girl 15 years old, and afterwards threw her over an embankment at the railroad tunnel, breaking her shoulder blade and otherwise injuring her. The negro was arrested and lodged in jail. night a crowd of infuriated citizens assembled and forced the jail, taking the negro and hanging him to a tree. Several shots were fired into the body while hanging.

It is said to be estimated by the directors o the Atlantic Telegraph Cable Company that their profits, under their tariff, will be twelve hundred and fifty thousand dollars per annum. The Cable Company has also issued proposals for $6,500,000 of new stock to pay off all the existing rights and privileges of the Anglo American Company, and all outstanding deben

VIRGINIA NEWS.

The Case of Churchwell Combs, brought be fore Judge Underwood by a writ of habeas corpus to test the constitutionality of the reconstruction laws, was called on Thursday in the U. S. Circuit Court, in Richmond. Gen. H. H. Wells, of Alexandria, representing the tion bill, may be learned from the statement Government in the absence of District Attorney Chandler, announced his readiness to proceed. He gave notice of an intention to move a dismissal of the proceedings in the case, in-We are fold that the arguments of Mr. Morton cluding the petition and the writ, on the have been riddled by the replies of Senators ground that this is a court of a jurisdiction too limited to take cognizance thereof. MISTAKE, -An amusing, but rather provoking error occurred at Jarrett's yesterday afternoon, caused by an accidental and innocent exchange of trunks. A gentleman going out on the Southern train had his trunk as he thought, transferred from the hotel to the cars, and jumping aboard himself, was soon hurried away beyond recall by the iron horse. It was subsequently discovered that he had taken the wrong trunk, one behours he was to appear before the altar. Of Congress.

In the Senate, yesterday, Mr. Wade presented the joint resolutions of the Legislature of Ohio withdrawing the assent of that State to the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution. Mr. Sherman submitted a protest from the Radical members of the Legislature against the action of the majority. Mr. Sumner said a State having once given its assent to an amendment to the Constitution, had no power to withdraw it, and the resolutions of this Legislature were a mere brutem fulmen, and perfectly impotent. He claimed that the amendment had been ratified by a sufficient number of States, and was now part of the Constitution. Mr. Johnson agreed with Mr. Summer that the assent of a State once given, there was no power to withdraw it; but that the Fourteenth Amendment had been ratified there was room for difference of opinion. The subject was referred to the Judiciary Committee. Debate was resumed on the Reconstruction bill, Mr. Howe replying to the speech of Mr. Doolittle. The Senate adjourned until In the House of Representatives yesterday, Mr. Eliot, from the Committee on Freedmen' Affairs, reported a bill to continue the Bureau of Freedmen, Refugees and Abandoned Lands. The report of the conference committee on the Cotton tax bill was agreed to. As passed, the bill repeals the present tax, and provides that cotton imported into this country after November 1st, 1868, shall be exempt from duty. The resolution from the Committee on Elections, declaring "that John Young Brown, having voluntarily given aid, countenance, counsel and encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility to the United States, is not entitled to take the oath of office as a Representative in this House from the Second Congressional District of Kentucky, and to hold a seat therein as such representative," was advocated by Mr. Dawes, and on the conclusion of his re marks, the House adjourned Juntil to-day.

THE RADICAL PROGRAMME. - Mr. Edmunds of Vermont, has introduced into the United States Senate a new bill on impeachment, which, if it can be carried through, will enable Congress to get rid of President Johnson on mere indictment of impeachment. The bill substantially proposes that on the arraignment of a civil officer on articles of impeachment from the House before the Senate, the party so indicted shall be suspended in the functions of his office until the end of the trial, and then, if acquitted of the charges against him, he shall be reinstated. The bill further provides for the employment of the army, if necessary, to enforce this aforesaid suspension. Now, as the suspension of Mr. Johnson would be practically his removal from office, to the end of his term, this bill bill provides for all that is wanted by the Radicals in his case. With this and the other Radical measures before the two houses duly passed over the veto, the reconstruction programme of Congress will embrace :-1. The Tenure of Office bill, the working of which we have seen in the reinstatement of Mr. Stanton in the War Department by the Senate over the President's objections to the continuance of this man as a member of his Cabinet.

2. The new Reconstruction bill, which makes Gen. Grant Provisional Dictator over the ten unreconstructed rebel States and wholly independent of the constitutional authority of the President as Commander-in-Chief of the army. 3. The bill providing that the concurrence of two-thirds of the members of the Supreme throughout the United States. 6. The bill of Mr. Edmands for the removal of President Johnson on being arraigned for trial on articles of impeachment.

This is an imposing schedule of revolutionary measures. If passed into the form of laws of the United States, we may then look out for something still more revolutionary and startling a Roman triumvirate or consulate, an English commonwealth, a French directory, a Mexican republic, a Haytien empire, or some thing which will dispense with the old consti tution entirely; provided always that the new Congress to be elected next fall shall be a repetition of this Congress, whose term expires with that of Andrew Johnson, March 4, 1869. -N. MILLIONAIRE. - Mr. Crawshay, the wealthi est iron manufacturer in England, died some months ago. It was then understood that he left an estate of four millions sterling. It now turns out to be nearer seven millions, or $35, 000,000 His youngest son took two millions under the wl', but was also left residuary legatee, probably under the supposition that afterpaying the other legaces to very large sumwould be left | Cariously enough, however, on the final settlement it is found that he actually comes into possession of a million more, and he is, therefore, without doubt, the richest 'younger son' in England, perhaps in the world, for he begins life with an actual capital of fifteen millions of dollars.

On the fine estate of James P. Scott, there are now two thousand vines, which will begin to bear this year. If the yield and quality of wine prove satisfatory, Mr. Scott will double and perhaps quadruple the size of his vineyard. We learn that the records show that Orange was established as far back as 1740, and perhaps farther. It was then a frontier County, and extended to the Ohio river.
